

ID AT THE POLLS FAQs

Can I use a picture ID with no address and a utility bill? No. You must have either have a picture ID with an address from List 1 or two items with an address from List 2. Otherwise, the you will have to vote a “conditional” provisional ballot which means you have 3 days to return and provide acceptable ID or your ballot will not be processed.

Can I use a valid Drivers License with a bad address? Yes, you vote a regular provisional ballot and you do NOT have to return after the election.

Can I use two items from List 2 if the addresses on those items do not match the signature roster? Yes, you vote a regular provisional ballot and you do NOT have to return after the election.

Can I use a statement from the same bank or utility, but two different months? No, you must have statements from two different banks or two different utilities. For example, you can bring your electric bill and your phone bill but you cannot bring two different months of your electric bill.

Can I bring you my passport and a utility bill with address? No, because your passport does not have an address on it.

My address says Phoenix, but I live in Scottsdale. Will they let me vote in the Scottsdale election? Yes. If the address on your ID matches the signature roster, you will vote a regular ballot. If the address does NOT match the signature roster, you will vote a regular provisional ballot, but you do not have to return after election day.

If all of the bills are in my husband’s name, but my name is on the bank statement, can I use the bank statement and you can see that we both live at the same house? You can use the bank statement, if you provide one additional item with your name and address from List 2. Each item provided must have your name and address on it.

Can I use my health club ID that has my name, picture and address if it is dated within 90 days? No. It must be a government issued ID.

Can I use my paycheck from Maricopa County, which has my name and address on it, and a utility bill as ID? No. You can use the utility bill, if it has your name and address, but a Maricopa County paycheck is not on List 1 or List 2.

Can I use my visa card that has my picture on it as my ID? What if I also bring the bill for it that also has my address? No, they are not on List 1 or List 2.

What about my Costco ID card? No, it is not on List 1 or List 2.

What about my auto insurance card? Yes, your vehicle insurance card can be used with an additional item from List 2 providing both items have your name and address on them.

Can I use my VA card that has my name and address on it? What about my membership card from the American Legion? Yes to the VA card if it has your name and address on it. No to the American Legion membership card. It is not a government ID.

Can I use my NRA card as my ID? What about my conceal and carry permit? What if I also bring my firearm? No to the NRA card. No to the permit. It entitles you to carry your firearm concealed but it does not constitute a government ID. No you cannot bring your firearm in the polling place.

Can I use my law enforcement identification (like a badge) as ID? What about County ID? Yes, if your law enforcement ID has your address on it. Yes, if your County ID has your address on.

If I have nothing from List 1 and only one item from List 2, can I vote? You can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. You will have to return after the election and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

If I have a driver’s license from another state can I vote? You can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. You will have to return after the election and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

Native Americans

Tribal Enrollment cards – do I need to come back if there is no picture? No, you would vote a regular provisional ballot.

If a tribal member does not have from List 1 or List 2 can they vote? They can vote a “conditional” provisional ballot. They will have to return after the election and provide one item from List 1 or two items from List 2.

Can I bring two of my utility bills and give my husband a copy of each to use for his ID? Yes. As long as they are bills from two different utilities.

My husband and I do all my banking online and I get my bank statement and credit union statement via email. Can I print two of each statement so my husband and I each have a set to use for ID? Yes.